

UCL Academic Manual

Chapter 8: Derogations and Variations

UCL Institute of Education (IOE)

UCL IOE Undergraduate Regulations 2016-17

Effective from 1 September 2016 for new and continuing students.

1.1.1 Introduction

- 1 These Regulations govern the conduct and award of IOE undergraduate degrees: BA Education Studies, BA/BSc Psychology with Education, BA/BEd top-up route and the Foundation Degree. Regulations governing BSc Social Sciences and BSc Social Sciences with Quantitative Methods are defined elsewhere in the main Academic Manual, mainly in Chapters 1, 2 and 4.
- 2 These Regulations are made subject to the UCL Academic Manual, the IOE Assessment Regulations for Students 2016-17 and any other appropriate regulations, policies or procedures of UCL.
- 3 Terms used in these Regulations have the meanings assigned to them, where the context so permits, by the IOE General Academic Regulations 2016-17.

1.1.2 Admission

- 1 The regulations governing the admission of students to UCL are defined in the UCL Academic Manual, Chapter 1: Admissions, Registration and Student Conduct. The requirements for individual programmes are set out in the UCL Prospectus.

- 3 In exceptional circumstances students may be granted special consideration due to extenuating circumstances as defined in the UCL Academic Manual, Chapter 4 Assessment Framework for Taught Programmes.
- 4 Students who do not have authorised extenuating circumstances (permission for an extension, deferment or notice of withdrawal) and who do not submit to assessment at the proper time will normally be recorded as absent from it and this will count as an attempt.
- 5 A candidate who does not at his or her first entry satisfy the examiners in the formal assessment or part of the formal assessment for which he or she has entered may be re-assessed in that element of his or her programme of study on one further occasion only. Deadlines for the resubmission of work for formal assessment or of examination resits shall be specified by the Programme Leader of the programme for which the student is registered.
- 6 Where a student elects or is permitted to re-submit formally assessed work or to resit an examination within the same academic year, such a resubmission or resit shall be regarded as the student's second and final attempt at that element of the programme of study.
- 7 A student who on two occasions fails or is absent from the assessment associated with a course required for the award for which he or she is registered may not continue with the programme of study.
- 8 For the BA Education Studies, BEd and Foundation Degree, a student who fails an optional module on two occasions may, subject to the approval of the Director of Undergraduate Programmes, register for a new optional module and may present himself or herself for formal assessment in relation to that the Board of Examiners, be allowed to count this mark towards their final degree classification, up to a maximum of 30 credits.

- 1.5 For the awards of BA/BSc Psychology, BA/BSc Psychology with Education, Foundation Degree and BEd(Top-Up) all modules must be passed to progress.
- 2 The Examiners will determine an outcome and a percentage mark for each module recorded as an integer between 0% and 100%, as follows:
 - 2.1 an outcome of Pass with a percentage mark will be returned where the candidate has gained a mark of 40% or above overall and in all the elements of assessment which carry an individual pass requirement.
 - 2.2 an outcome of Absent without a percentage mark will be returned where the candidate has not met the attendance requirements or has failed to be present for an assessment. This will count as an attempt at the assessment in question.
- 3 Students who re-sit assessment shall not receive an overall mark greater than 40% for that component.
- 4 It is not permitted to re-take passed assessments in order to achieve a higher grade.

1.1.10 Progression to a subsequent stage of a programme

- 1 The Board of Examiners will review the annual academic progress of each student.
- 2 A part-time student may be required to repeat or re-sit modules before registering for further modules in the same stage of the programme, where this is deemed appropriate in light of his/her academic performance.
- 3 In order to progress from the first to the second stage of a programme leading to the award of Foundation Degree or BA Education Studies a student must:
 - 3.1 Pass or be granted exemption from modules to the value of at least 90 credits; and
 - 3.2 Pass or be granted exemption from any prerequisite modules deemed necessary for progression onto the second stage in the programme specification.
- 4 In order to progress from the second to the third stage of a programme leading to the award of BA Education Studies a student must:
 - 4.1 Pass or be granted exemption from modules from the second stage to the value of at least 90 credits; and

- 4.2 Pass or be granted exemption from any prerequisite modules deemed necessary for progression onto the third stage of the programme.
- 5 BA/BSc Psychology and BA/BSc Psychology with Education students must pass or be granted exemption from 120 credits each year, to progress from one stage to the next.

1.1.11 Awards

- 1 In order to be eligible for the award of a BA or BSc, a candidate must:
 - 1.1 Complete the programme and satisfy the requirements for attendance and submission of work for all modules;
 - 1.2 Pass or be granted exemption from modules from the programme totalling a minimum of 300 credits (Ordinary award) or 360 credits (Honours award), 60 of which must be passed at Level 6 or above for an Ordinary award, 90 of which must be passed at Level 6 or above for an Honours award.
- 2 In order to be eligible for the award of a BEd or BA (top-up route) a candidate must:
 - 2.1 Complete the programme and satisfy the requirements for attendance and submission of work for all modules;
 - 2.1 Pass or be granted exemption from modules from the programme totalling 120 credits, all of which must be at Level 6 or above.
- 3 In order to be eligible for the award of a Foundation Degree, a candidate must:
 - 3.1 Complete the programme and satisfy the requirements for attendance and submission of work for all modules;
 - 3.2 Pass or be granted exemption from modules from the programme totalling 240 credits, at least 90 of which must be taken at Level 5 or above.

1.1.12 Interim qualifications

- 1 In order to be eligible for the award of an Honours Degree, a Diploma of Higher Education or a Certificate of Higher Education, a candidate must, within the maximum period of registration, pass in degree elements amounting to at least the minimum number of credits specified in the UCL Academic Manual, Chapter 2: Qualifications and Credit Framework, of which the required elements of the course concerned shall form a part.

1 1 13 Degree Classification

- 1 The classification of candidates for the award of Foundation Degree shall be as follows:
 - 1.1 To be eligible for the award of Distinction, students must achieve a Distinction (70% or above) for modules totalling 160 credits, with at least half of these marks falling in the second year of the programme.
 - 1.2 To be eligible for the award of Merit, candidates must achieve a Merit (60-69.9%) for modules totalling 160 credits, with at least half of these
