2 Introduction to the Medical School

2.1 Introduction to the department and its history

UCL has a proud history of educating doctors and scientists in London since 1834. The medical school sits in the heart of London and we work closely with several major teaching hospitals including University College London Foundation Trust, the Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children, the National Hospital for Nervous Diseases (Queen Square), the Royal Free Hospital and Moorfields Eye Hospital, it provides truly world class medical education. - a highly capable, and patient-centred clinician, equipped to practise medicine in a professional. inclusive, and sustainable way grounded in science and best practice. This vision is underpinned by the values of scholarship, rigour and professionalism. The focus is on the development of the student as a scientifically informed, socially responsible professional who, in turn, can serve the health needs of individuals and communities.

Information about the Medical School and our history can be found at About Us.

2.2 Explanation of the relationship between department and faculty

UCL Medical School is part of the Faculty of Medical Sciences which, working in collaboration with the Faculties of Brain Sciences, Life Sciences and Population Health Sciences, forms a major biomedical research centre and leader in medical and health research with one of the largest and most renowned groupings of academics in these areas.

Information about our relationship with the Faculty can be found at Our Place at UCL.

2.3 Key staff members within the department and faculty

UCL Medical School houses our prestigious and long established MBBS undergraduate medicine programme, postgraduate education programmes, education research activity and Widening Participation Programme. Information about our activities can be found on our website here, including:

5 Hours of Study

5.1 Hours of study

The required hours of study for the MBBS, including personal study time, are published in the A-Z of policies on the Current MBBS Students website at: Attendance and Engagement

This time is made up of formal learning and teaching events such as lectures, seminars, tutorials, placements, as well as independent study.

Teaching finishes at 12.50pm on Wednesday afternoons to enable students to participate in extra-curricular activities including sports.

5.2 Personal study time

Medical students are expected to spend a minimum of ten hours per week in additional study outside the prescribed course.

7.1 Information on fitness to practise policies applicable to MBBS students

Students on professional training programmes are expected to conduct themselves and to behave in a professional manner at all times, both at UCL, in the workplace and in their conduct outside of work, in line with the professional codes of practice that apply to their discipline.

Professional programmes have a duty both to the public and to regulatory bodies to ensure that students seeking to enrol and students who are enrolled meet the relevant standards of professional conduct, and that graduates are fit to enter a regulated profession.

In the first instance programmes at UCL will always seek to support students and find ways to resolve any issues. Where this is not possible, and serious concerns remain, programmes may refer students to a Fitness to Practise panel.

as a Primary Medical Qualification (PMQ), and universities may not award a PMQ to a student who has unresolved fitness to practise issues.

In the Medical School, we fulfil this duty by enabling students to acquire knowledge and develop skills and attitudes appropriate to their future role as doctors; and by seeking to ensure that any fitness to practise concerns during the course are investigated, supportive interventions offered, and outcomes achieved prior to finals and the deadline for application for provisional registration with the GMC.

8 Programme structure

8.1 The structure of the programme, duration, credits, qualification(s)

An overview of the structure and duration of the MBBS programme is published at:

MBBS Overall Timetable MBBS Programme Information MBBS Course Structure.

Further details about each year of study are published annually in the relevant year Moodle sites.

Years 1 and 2 each carry 120 credits. Years 4,5,6 each carry 180 credits.

8.2 Placements and study abroad

8.2.1 Information on placements

An overview of MBBS clinical placements can be found at the links at 8.1.

More details about MBBS clinical placement arrangements, preferences and requirements are provided on Year and Module Moodle sites. Placement timetables are published in the Curriculum Map/ASR.

8.2.2 Information on study abroad options

Year 6 offers the opportunity for MBBS students to take a clinical elective placement overseas. Information about MBBS elective placements, Medical School requirements and the approval process are published at Elective Planning, with further details provided via the Year 5 and Year 6 Moodle sites.

8.3 Professional accreditation

8.3.1 Details of any professional accreditation and associated requirements integrated into the programme and requirements for students

The MBBS degrees which are awarded at the end of the undergraduate course are a primary medical qualification (PMQ). Holding a PMQ entitles you to provisional registration with the General Medical Council. A candidate may not be awarded a PMQ where fitness to practise concerns have been raised or are under consideration. All

GMC provisional registration is time limited to a maximum of three years and 30 days (1125 days in total). After this time period provisional registration will normally expire.

9.2 Transition Mentors (first-year UG)

9.2.1 Transition Mentors

The UCL Transition Programme supports new first-year students at UCL, helping them to settle in quickly and achieve their potential. Each first-year student is assigned a Transition Mentor for their first term. Transition mentors are later-year students within each department who work with small groups of students on a weekly basis to help them settle in to UCL and London as well as focussing on academic issues and topics specific to their degree programme. First-year students meet their Transition Mentor during the first week of term at their departmen

10 Advice on choosing module options and electives

10.1 Choosing modules

Modules are the individual units of study which lead to the award of credit.

10.1.1 Choosing Modules for 2024/25

In the MBBS programme, all modules are core and students do not need to participate in our Education Management Team will make sure all students are registered for all modules needed.

In Years 1 and 2, students will be invited to submit preferences for Student Selected Components at the beginning of Term 1. This process is managed by the relevant year team in the MBBS Curriculum Team. Details of the process for submitting preferences will be published in the relevant Year Moodle Sites.

During Year 2, all students except for graduate entrants will be invited to submit preferences for Year 3 Intercalated BSc's. Information about the programmes offered and the allocation process are set out here.

In Years 4, 5 and 6, students will be invited to submit preferences for clinical placement sites. This process is managed by the relevant year team in the MBBS Curriculum Team. Details of the process for submitting preferences will be published in the relevant Year Moodle Sites.

11 Changes to Registration Status

11.1 Information on how to change, interrupt or withdraw from a programme

Changes to Registration

Students wishing to make changes to their registration status should first discuss their plans with their Personal Tutor or Supervisor who can explain the options available and help students to make the right decision. Students should also ensure that they read the relevant sections of the UCL Academic Manual before making any requests to change their academic record.

Applications must be made in advance of the effective date of change.

11.1.1 Changing programme

If a student wishes to transfer from one UCL degree programme to another, they must make a formal application. The usual deadline for change of degree programme during the academic session is the end of October each year (for students registering in September, with a later date for students registering in January) to be compatible with module selection deadlines, although later transfers may be possible, where the transfer does not affect module selections. Students should log in to their Portico account and complete the online application. Students are strongly advised to discuss their plan with the departments involved before requesting a change of programme on Portico.

Transfer into the MBBS from other programmes is not possible.

Further information:

Changing your degree programme or modules

Academic Manual Chapter 3, Section 5 Programme Transfers

11.1.2 Withdrawing from a programme

If a student wishes to leave their degree programme prior to completing their final examinations they must apply for a formal withdrawal from their studies. Applications must be made in advance of the effective date of change. Students should log in to their Portico account and complete the online application.

Further information:

Interrupting or withdrawing from your studies

Academic Manual Chapter 3, Section 7: Withdrawing from a programme

11.1.3 Informing the Student Loans Company of changes to your student status

If a student makes a change to their programme or registration status during the course of the academic year, it is important that the Student Loans Company (SLC) is notified. The SLC can then re-assess and update its records. Changes could include a student withdrawing from their academic programme, an interruption in studies or transferring to a new programme. The SLC must also be notified when there is a change in mode of study or when a student has returned from an interruption.
